

Prince of Songkla University (PSU) Announcement
Title: Guideline for Registration Procedures in the Second Semester of the Academic Year 2017

Prince of Songkla University has identified the registration period for the Second Semester of the Academic Year 2017 to be from 3 - 14 January 2018. In order to facilitate the registration procedure, students are required to follow this guideline.

1. Tuition Fee Payment

The payment can be made through <https://sis.psu.ac.th> and students can select one of the two (2) methods of payment as follows:

1.1 Bill Payment System

Students can pay their tuition fee through Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited, Bangkok Bank Public Company Limited, or Krung Thai Bank Public Company Limited starting from 18 December 2017 to 10 January 2018. The bill must be settled at least two (2) working days before the registration period. Students are strongly requested to carefully check the reference number of the payment slip that must have the same digits with the reference document issued by the Bank. In case of any mistake, student should immediately contact the Bank for the correction, otherwise, the registration will not be completed.

1.2 Direct Pay System

The money will be withdrawn online directly from student's Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited account from 18 December 2017 to 14 January 2018. The payment procedures can be obtained from <https://sis.psu.ac.th>. In order to enable the Direct Pay System, students are required to open an account at the Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited and apply for an ATM card. Moreover, students have to sign the Authorization Form which allows the Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited to online withdraw money from their account via the ATM machine at least 7 working days before the registration period. The authorization form is valid from the signing date and is effective for every semester thereafter.

However, in some cases, students might be requested to resign the Authorization Form because of the following reasons:

- the unintended lost of the account number from the system,
- the wrong account number,

- the change of the account number or student ID number.

Students who want to settle the bill with this system must deposit in their account an amount of money including the total amount of tuition fee they have to pay, plus at least 300 Baht more.

2. Scholarship Students and Students Eligible for Delay of Tuition Fee's Payment

2.1 Undergraduate Students

2.1.1 Faculty scholarship students must contact the relevant staff at their own faculty.

2.1.2 University scholarship students must contact the Student Affairs Division. Scholarship students must contact the relevant faculties or the Student Affairs Division by 20 December 2017 in order to record the data into the Financial Information System and be eligible for the registration.

2.2 Graduate Students

2.2.1 Scholarship students must contact the relevant faculty or the Graduate School by 20 December 2017 in order to record the data in the Financial Information System and be eligible for the registration.

2.2.2 Graduate students are not allowed to make delayed payments for their tuition fee.

3. Registration Instructions

3.1 Students with a GPA lower than 2.00 must meet the supervisor in order to get the approval for registration.

3.2. Students who register for subjects that have the same mid-term or final examination date with other subjects, must submit the Request Form for Concurrent Examinations at the relevant faculty before registration. The registration must be done by the due date.

3.3 Students wishing to register for subjects that limit the number of attendees or accept only specific groups of students, must submit the Limited-enrollment Course Registration Request Form together with a permission from the subject's lecturer and must submit the registration form to the Registration Unit at the Registrar's Division. Students can further process their registration after two (2) hours from submitting the registration form, and the registration must be finished within the same day.

3.4 Graduate students wishing to register for the thesis, must submit the approved Advisor Assignment Form (GS 1) to the Registration Unit at the Registrar's Division before registration

3.5 Amount of Credits for Registration
